

What things
are you good at?
What other things
would you like to be good at?

Imagine you can invite any three
people in the whole
world to come for tea.
Who would you invite?
Why have you
chosen them?

Who are the people in your life who make you happy?
Why do you think they make you feel happy?

If you could do any job
for just one day, which
job would you choose?
Why?

Imagine you can see into the future and you are a grown-up. What job are you doing? Where are you living? What else has changed?

If you could have any super-power, like flying
or super-strength,
what would it be?
Why?

Imagine you found a magical plant that would grow anything you asked it to. What would you ask it to grow? What would the plant look like?
